

Exam and Study Reflection

Midterm 1 Extra Credit

Instructor: Amy Handlan

Intermediate Microeconomics

Spring 2019

This assignment is meant to give students a chance to reflect on their study strategies for Econ 3101 with the objective that they can improve their study strategies going forward in the course. Answer the following questions thoroughly. Students will receive 0, 3, or 5 points on their Midterm 1 score. Students with thoughtful, detailed answers will get 5 points. Students who do not provide thorough answers will not receive bonus points.

1. Did you hand in Problem Set 1? Circle: Yes No
2. Did you hand in Problem Set 2? Circle: Yes No
3. What was your score on Midterm 1? Where did you get points taken off? Identify at least one patten of where you got points off/where you could have done better: multiple choice, derivatives, algebra, remembering steps to optimization problems, graphing, special cases, etc...
4. How did you study for Midterm 1 (flash cards, practice problems, reading notes/slides, come up with own practice problems, review homework, review practice midterm, attend PAL sessions, attend office hours, study with group, others)? When did you begin studying for Midterm 1 and how much time did you spend studying?
5. Summarize the article What Works, What Doesn't by Dunlosky, Rawson, Marsh, Nathan, and Willingham. What study methods do they analyze? What are the most effective study methods? Why?
6. Write 2-4 sentences comparing your study methods to the ones described in the article.
7. Write 2-3 sentences explaining how you can improve your study strategies for the rest of the semester? What methods do you plan to incorporate into your study strategy for Midterm 2?
